FOOT-BALL'S OPENING DAY.

Three Games This Afternoon-Champienship Contest for Thanksgiving.

To-day will occur the opening games of the foot-ball series of the Indiana Intercollegiate Athletic Association, Purdue and Wabash playing at Crawfordsville, Depauw and Rose Polytechnic at Terre Haute; and Butler and Indiana University at Bloomington. The magnificent autumn weather has given better opportunity for training and practice than has been enjoyed for years, and exceptionally strong playing is looked for at the start. All collegians and their friends are looking forward to to-day's games with lively interest, though those who have been "keeping tabs" on the personnel and practice work of the teams have little difficulty in predicting the results. It is generally conceded that Purdue will "wipe the ground" with Wabash and that De Pauw will make short work of Rose Polytechnic. The Butler-Indiana University game, however, is not so certain, though the hard luck Butler has had in her failure for so long a time to get a coach and the heavy men on the State University team put the chances in favor of the the latter.

There can be little doubt that Purdue and De Pauw will be the ones to come up to Indianapolis and do battle for championship honors on Thanksgiving Day.

AMUSEMENTS.

Mr. Golden and his company will repeat their interesting performance of "Old Jed Prouty" at the Grand, at the matinee today and to-night, for the fast time. Souvenir spoons will be given to the ladies at the night performance.

There will be some notable attractions at the city theaters next week. Miss Marie Hubert Frohman will play a return engagement in "The Witch," at English's, the first three nights, and will be followed by Augustas Petou's great war play, in which a hundred people are employed, "Across the Potomac," for the remainder of the week. At the Grand, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Opic Reed's new play, "A Kentucky Colonel," will be given, with McKee Rankin and Frederic Bryton in the leading roles.

The vaudeville part of the attraction at the Empire during the present week is especially entertaining. Each act contains something new in the way of music, songs, dances, jokes and gags. At the Empire next week, commencing Monday afternoon, the attraction will be C. W. Williams's big show, introducing a number of artists, among them being Matthews and Harris, A. Van Gofre, Miss Retta Donnelly, Riebards, the Brothers Gardner, the three Ravens, the Foy Brothers, and Manager C. W. Williams.

Our Glove Department so Ex-Supreme Cashier the First of the Iron hallers to Surrender.

> Capiases for the Others Not Issued-Bennett's Administration of the Root Estate Approved-Court Briefs.

A few minutes past 9 o'clock, yesterday morning, the erstwhile Supreme Cashier Davis, in company with his attorneys, Duncan and Cooper, walked into the sheriff's office, and Davis calmly informed Deputy Sheriff Swift that he desired to be arrested. The accommodating deputy repaired to the Criminal Court room and procured from Clerk Reveal the capias for Davis's arrest, and, returning to the office, served it upon him. Judge Cox had fixed the bond of the in-dicted supreme officers at $20,000, which was much higher than Davis was looking for and he was unprepared to give the bond. The attorneys thought the amount of the bond was unreasonable and intimated that an effort would be made to have it reduced; no such attempt was made, however, and late in the afternoon Davis had succeeded in giving bond for the amount with Jos. Hass and Raphael Kirschbaum as sureties. Kirschbaum as sureties.

Davis is the only resident officer indicted, and the capiases for the arrest of the others have not yet been sent to the sheriff. The warrants for the arrest of the non-residents will not be served until an order to that effect is made by the court, as such an order is necessary to provide for the ex-

Bennett Vindicated by the Court. By the will of Deloss Root, Henry W. Bennett was appointed executor and trustee of his estate. On the eighth day of last April Anna E. and Julia H. Root filed in the Circuit Court a petition for the removal of Bennett, alleging that he was not a proper person to execute the trust and making some serious charges against him. A finding of facts and conclusion and order thereon was made in the case yesterday after-Bennett, the sole executor and trustee under the will, has not, as alleged in the petition to perform the duties required of him by law as executor; has not failed to make proper returns and inventories of the property received by him as executor and belonging to the estate, but has made and filed all proper inventories of the property of every description, and though not required by law to do so, has made and filed a complete inventory of all the real estate belonging to the estate, and has kept an accurate account of the income, receipts and expenditures made by him as executor. and expenditures made by him as executor, and concealed nothing from the devisees and legatees under the will, as alleged in the petition for removal. In regard to the allegations pertaining to the real estate in Marion county, the court finds that Bennett holds title to this property in his own right, free from any claim by the estate. The court also finds that he claims no right or title to the land claims no right or title to the land in Pulaski county other than as a legatee under the will. This land, the court finds, was not purchased by Bennett as the confidential agent of Deloss Rott or Root and his wife with money furnished by them and take title in himself, but was purchased by Root himself, and is a part of his estate. Upon its finding of facts the court concludes that Bennett is a proper person to execute the trust, and refuses to remove him as executor, and orders the costs of the proceedings for his removal taxed against the estate.

Compromised Their Troubles. Harry Gotolf and Raphael Smith were partners in a bakery, and failed to agree at all times on the manner of conducting the business. They agreed to leave their differences to a board of five arbitrators, who, after considering the case, gave a decision, in substance, as follows: If Gotolf wanted to buy out Smith he was to pay $250 for the other's interest, and if Smith wanted to buy out Gotolf he should work ten days for nothing. This did not satisfy the parties, and Gotolf filed suit in the Superior Court for an accounting and the appointment of a receiver. Yesterday morning he came into Judge Walker's court and told the Judge that he wanted all his papers, as the case had been compromised. the case had been compromised.

Another Phase of the Trouble. The developments in the Fredericks case continue to come to the surface. Close upon the heels of his suit to annul the marriage with his wife is filed a suit by John W. Fredericks for the possession of the property now occupied by his wife on South East street. The suit was filed before Justice Habich yesterday. Mrs. Fredericks's attorneys filed an answer in the case denying the jurisdiction of the court. A good part of the afternoon yesterday was consumed in arguing the question presented by the answer, and the court took the matter under advisement and will render its decision this morning.

To Set Aside a Deed.

John Schley, as receiver of the Novelty Bicycle Manufacturing Company, yesterday filed suit in Superior Court against Kenry K. Slaughter and his wife to set aside a conveyance of a lot in Lincoln Park. The receiver alleges that the convevance was made without any actual consideration, for the purpose of defrauding the creditors.

HE SHOWED FIGHT.

Bicycle Thief Who Resisted Arrest with Drawn Revolver.

Detective Richards yesterday arrested a desperado in embryo. Several days ago, as Burton V. Willits, of the firm of Hay & Willits, was passing Pearson's music store he saw standing in front of the place a safety bicycle which had the appearance of an old acquaintance. Taking a note-book from his pocket, he compared a number jotted down there with the number stamped on the wheel, and identified it as one that had been stolen from in front of his place of business some time before. Pearson had obtained the wheel from a Haughville grocer named Witty, taking it in on a trade for a piano, and had allowed Witty $100 for it. Witty said that he had purchased the wheel from Edward F. Sands. The latter was located at 41 Rockwood street. Detective Richards was detailed to watch the house, and yesterday while at his post of duty he saw Sands and a companion leave the house and turn into an alley. The officer overtook them, and when he attempted Caroline has asked the court for a divorce to make the arrest they showed fight. and drew a revolver to emphasize his declaration. The officer didn't scare as easily as thought for, however, and shoving his own revolver under Sands's face compelled him to surrender. In the meantime his companion had fled. At the police station Sands was slated for grand larceny and carrying concealed weapons.

INTO AN OPEN SWITCH.

Vandalia Passenger Collides with a Freight at the Belt-Fireman and Eaggageman Hurt.

Yesterday the morning accommodation train over the Terre Haute & Indianapolis road in-bound, when nearing the Belt road, ran into a switch which had been left open carelessly and collided with a freight train standing on the side-track. Before the collision came Andy Walker, engineer, had brought the passenger train nearly to a stand-still, yet it struck with sufficient force to bruise the fireman and the baggagemaster, although not at all seriously The damage to the locomotives was slight. Mrs. John Egger, residing at 24 Bismarck street, was a passenger on the train, and was much frightened. As soon as the train was stopped she jumped off and started toward town on foot. The conductor asked her to wait a few minutes, when the train would proceed, but she declared that she would never again ride on a railroad train, and walked on in as far as the Insane Hospital, where she caught a street-car of the mule variety, which was perfectly safe.

Will Come Here Next Year. The Mississippi Valley Medical Association, which has been holding its annual meeting in Cincinnati during the last three days, has decided to come to Indianapolis next year. The committee appointed by the Marion County Medical Society to secure this action, returned from the Cincin-nati meeting yesterday. Drs. W. N. Wish-ard. Potter, Lash, F. Woodburn, Brayton, Cline and Lewis, constituting the committee, were in attendance from this city.

The work of the young ladies is eagerly looked forward to in their native city. They will be assisted by a number of prominent musicians. Convention to Consider the Subject to Be Called Here in December.

Legislature Will Be Asked to Take It Up-Commercial Club Kestaurant-Meeting of the Directors.

The Commercial Club directors held a special meeting last evening to consider the best means of maintaining a restaurant in the new Commercial Club Building. The subject was presented by Mr. Fortune. He said that the finance committee, while the matter had not been formally referred to themselves, had given it some consideration. They were not ready, however, to recommend the plan considered, not having the authority. It would be impossible, he said, for the club to assume the expense and management in its own corporate name, owing the restricted powers under the articles of incorporation. He suggests, however, that such a plan as this might be adopted: The restaurant to be owned and operated by a Commercial Club company, which is to have the rent, light, heat, and water free.

The service and appointments are to be first-class; the club members are to be served on the floor below the public dining-room; the first profits, not exceeding 10 per cent, are to go to the operating company, and the excess to the club. The suggestion induced a protracted discussion lasting over an hour. Mr. Lieber favored the plan proposed by Mr. Fortune, and moved that it be taken as the sense of the meeting that the club as the sense of the meeting that the club conducta restaurant of high class, and that the subject be referred to the finance committee for consideration and report. The motion was adopted.

The committee on city interests made a report upon the question of a separate library board, in which they refrained from expressing an opinion upon the merits of the question, and recommended that no action be taken at this time. The report was approved. President Lilly was authorized to appoint delegates to attend a national conference on the subject of good roads, to be held at Chicago, Oct. 19 to 22, under the suspices of the National Board of Trade. Mr. Fortune then called up the subject of road improvements in Indiana, and suggested that a State conference be called by the club for the first week in December. The delegates are to be sent by county commissioners, common councils and trade organizations. The purpose is to consider the road interests of Indiana and to select a legislative committee to draft and pre-sent a bill before the Legislature creating State system of roads. He also would accrue to the State and its capital, in a business and social way. He said that the money now annually expended is thrown away, and that it was not extravagant to estimate the loss to the State by such past expenditures of at least $25,000 .-000. The meeting authorized the president to appoint a committee of five, of which Mr. Fortune shall be chairman, to have charge of the road matter, and authority to call the State conference for December.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

Vermont Street to Be Opened through to Arsenal Avenue.

The session of the Board of Public Works vesterday morning was not productive of any very great amount of business. Final action was taken on the opening of Verment street east as far as Arsenal avenue. Lots 13 and 14 on Pine street, at the end of Vermont street, will be cut through and the street will be extended through 490.5 feet, crossing the L. E. & W. tracks and Pogue's run to Hanna street. Between Hanna street and Arsenal avenue the street will be opened 498 feet to the point where East Vermont street begins. Enoch Alley and James Shea, who own property at the corner of Pine and Vermont streets, protested against cutting the street through their lots. Mr. Alley will lose twenty-six and one-half feet and Mr. Shea eighteen and one-half. The former values his property at $4,000 and the latter at $2,600. The board informed them that they would be allowed a fair valuation for the loss of their prop-

The board took no action in the matter.
